“Who is to say this whole thing was not a dream? I might have fallen asleep on the train and dreamt that a gorgeous stranger bought me a drink. No, it could not have been a dream; I can still feel his goodbye kisses lingering on my cheeks.”

First rule: Never date an ex, a co-worker, or a man who is married. Second rule: Never spend more than three nights with the same man. Third rule: Do not sacrifice any part of my private life for a man, Fourth rule: Do not fall in love. Chloé Haughton has carefully perfected these rules for life, and she is very proud that she has never broken them. Alistair Monroe may be a billionaire with charm, charisma, and dazzling good-looks, but Chloé Haughton would never consider a serious relationship with him for a second. The problem is, Alistair isn't used to having to follow rules, and he is determined to seduce the gorgeous Chloé. Between Paris and New York, all of Chloé's good intentions begin to crumble as the lovers' passionate encounters bring them ever closer... but old demons are lying in wait, ready to pounce again. Can Alistair overcome them?

Eva Mary Bennett was born in 1989 in New York. Her mother is an English opera singer, and her American father was once a rocker. After excelling in communication and literary studies, she became a freelance journalist, and works for numerous popular magazines. The Friends with Benefits series is her first fictional work.

Each volume of the trilogy contains about 35.000-32.000 words, approximately equivalent to a 90-page novel.

Part 1: Friends with Benefits, if you dare

Part 2: Friend with Benefits, only?

Part 3: Friends with Benefits, or more?

This is a complete, uncensored version: no scenes have been cut.**
