Good News for the Chemically Dependent and Those Who Love Them By Jeff VanVonderen

Millions of people are caught in the vortex of addiction to alcohol, methamphetamines or some other form of prescription or nonprescription drug. The devastation and despair even extend within church walls, often hidden by the victims and those around them. These addictions leave confusion and broken relationships in their wake. Jeff VanVonderen provides answers to the myriad of questions facing those with addictions and those looking to help them. Updated with information on the latest designer drugs, including crystal meth, here is a powerful resource that can help see churches, families, and individuals through their darkest times.
