Editorial Review

About the Author

Anita Badhwar grew up in Toronto, Canada and moved to the United States in 2000. Anita caught the "writing bug" after one of her creative writing stories in fourth grade was published with a local newspaper. Anita decided to pursue her lifelong dream of writing a South Asian children's book series in 2012. In particular, she wanted celebrate her heritage with the world by writing a book series that presented information about India, Indian culture and Hindu festivals. Since 2012, her books have been featured in several South Asian on-line magazines in the U.S., Canada and the U.K. Anita lives in Florida with her husband, and two children, and her lovable dog Buddy.
