Author Peter Phipps, one of the three counselors on a Community Crisis Intervention Team sent to the scene of the tragic Aramoana massacre, experience while there a life-changing encounter with God as a 'Living Presence'. He sensed a Power beyond his own - a Power, a Love and a Caring beyond anything ever experienced. On the way home he heard the words, "I am greater than you know, seek me out and find me." This message implied that there was the possibility of finding the Source of the message, and Peter determined to explore and find that Source. In time, he found that "Living Presence" in Sathya Sai Baba. "I looked into His eyes. His eyes met mine. In those eyes was infinity. The whole Christian story made sense at a higher level than ever before." Peter realized that the Golden Age is now dawning and a Living God again walks the earth; a Lord of infinite love, wisdom and compassion, accessible to all, as was Jesus nearly two thousand years ago.
