Sindrome di Catter (Italian Edition) By Daniel Azzola

Wilton Merelli è un uomo che non potrebbe desiderare di più dalla vita: ha un buon posto nell'autosalone del padre, è di bell'aspetto, non si fa mancare nulla... eppure, d'un tratto, un ostacolo appena dietro l'angolo rovina questa sua perfetta esistenza: un incidente d'auto che lo separa per sempre dal padre, procurandogli un'amnesia retrograda che pare non volerlo lasciare. Ci vorrà un chiacchierato esperto di psicologia per metterlo al corrente di un vecchio, pressoché sconosciuto metodo atto ad alleviare questa sua ormai insostenibile lacuna. Wilton poco a poco rimembra. La gioia per la scoperta del metodo, tuttavia, si trasforma rapidamente in orrore, e Wilton si renderà ben presto conto che forse sarebbe stato meglio non ricordare.
