Echo, Mine (A Fallen Guardian Novella 1.5) By Georgia Lyn Hunter

After a horrifying incident that left her in a coma for several long months, Echo now has to get used to a different life. As a descendant of a powerful angel, her days waver between training as the new Healer and convincing her mate she's strong enough to match him in life and in bed.

A surprise date night gives her the perfect opportunity to do both. But plans have a way of coming unraveled. One disaster leads to another, and Echo accepts that nothing in their lives will ever be normal.

But the biggest revelation of the night comes after she kills a dangerous, soul-sucking demonii. Sparks fly between her and her mate, proving that normal is most definitely overrated.

Editorial Review

Review

- "Hunter captivates with another strong and sexy heroine and the delicious alpha immortal who loves her. The perfect balance of action, conflict, and romance, and proof that sense of self is just as important as true and everlasting love." ~LITERAL ADDICTION
- "I love sensual romances and Hunter gives us an intimate look into this everlasting relationship of immortals. Never said it would be easy, but having a lethal Guardian as your lover can be delicious, challenging and very, very hot!! Sara-Reviewer
