The Song of Songs & Hymns (The Collected Works of Watchman Nee Book 23) By Watchman Nee

God's love is poured out on the believers without measure. Christ woos us by progressively revealing more of Himself to us in our experience, and gradually draws us to run after Him as our lovely bridegroom so that we can grow to be His beloved Bride. In The Song of Songs Watchman Nee expounds King Solomon's poetic allegory of God's love. He discusses the stages of a believer's relationship with Christ and reveals the spiritual history of every believer. This history progresses from an initial pursuit of and satisfaction with Christ to an ever-increasing desire to be delivered from the self and the flesh through the genuine experience of the cross. In this deliverance there is an intimate, sweet communion of a divine romance, which issues in our living and working in union with Christ for the fulfillment of God's eternal purpose.
