Zombie Retreat: "The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life." Romans 6:23 (StudentRetreat.com) (Volume 1) By studentretreat.com

How did we become a world that was so self-absorbed? What happened to make us a world where people didn't care anymore? How did we become Zombies? In this retreat we will start with insightful studies in the Garden of Eden and Adam and Eve's temptation. This will help us see that the world we live in today leaves us dead in sin. We are still "alive," but we are self-serving and compassionless. This Zombie retreat is designed to spur students to return to God and love their neighbors in word and deed. Finally if we choose to accept God's grace we will be given a new heart that is alive in Christ. Zombie Retreat will be an unforgettable experience designed in order to restore and claim souls in Jesus by; Groups that foster Christian relationships, lessons that cut to the heart, thoughts created to renewing the mind, and activities that stimulate all 5 senses.

About the Author

ServantRetreat.com was created by fellow youth workers who are currently spending time in the “trenches” with today’s youth. Matt Lee and Lane Brown have close to twenty years of full time student ministry experience. Matt graduated from Abilene Christian University with a degree in Youth and Family Ministry and he has been serving as the Student Minister at the North Pointe Church since 2005. Lane graduated from Texas A&M University with a degree in Speech Communications, and Harding University with a Masters of Ministry and has been serving as the Family and Youth Minister at the Chandler Street Church of Christ since 2006. Together, Matt and Lane have personally done each of the retreats on ServantRetreat.com. They have seen what worked with their annual student retreat, what they wish they would have added, and what they thought was best left out. The final product results in a complete tested and approved retreat for your students.
