Editorial Review

Review

“Berger succeeds in describing this subject – which students often consider ‘boring stuff’ – in an original, interesting and sometimes humorous way. His personal style makes this book easy to read. Berger writes as if he is standing in front of a class, clearly explaining complex material, while telling lots of anecdotes and giving clarifying examples.” (Communications: The European Journal of Communication Research 2003-09-15)

About the Author

Arthur Asa Berger is professor emeritus of Broadcast and Electronic Communication Arts at San Francisco State University, where he taught between 1965 and 2003. He has published more than 100 articles, numerous book reviews, and more than 60 books.
