Finishing Well, Finishing Strong (A Romans 12 Disciple) By Jim Grassi

Many men struggle with identity issues, mid-life crises, depression, self-esteem, and defining a life mission. Our culture has tried to redefine what Christian manhood means. A growing number of men see their primary identity in what they do rather than who they are. Not enough men value the importance of great character and modeling Christlike attitudes.

In Finishing Well, Finishing Strong, Jim Grassi explores what spiritual manhood looks like and how men can discover the joy of living an abundant life. Persevering through pressure and stress to find God's peace allows men not to quit when the going gets tough. Dr. Grassi helps men discover the difference between having worldly success and developing spiritual significance. Men will feel motivated, empowered, and equipped to better cope with the issues in our chaotic culture that impact personal growth.

Features include:

- Practical and relevant ideas and resources to assist those wishing to find more joy in their lives
- Specific suggestions for lifestyle adjustments to give a better understanding of balance and stress management
- An exploration of what it means to have a spiritual mentor
- Powerful Bible studies for applying God's wisdom to developing short- and long-term goals
- Encouragement for perseverance and coping with chaotic issues

Randy Caldera:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library in order to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Finishing Well, Finishing Strong (A Romans 12 Disciple) can make you feel more interested to read.
